Mount Pearl Sports Hall of Fame Inductee
Charlie Adams
Builder 2010

Charlie Adams is known for his extensive contribution as a volunteer coach, official, and Executive member (12 years) of the Mount Pearl Soccer Association (MPSA). The MPSA was extremely fortunate Charlie volunteered his professional expertise in the development and the construction of the Upper Smallwood field and the original “Soccer Hut”. Charlie’s background and experience in civil engineering and surveying served him well, and served the Mount Pearl sports community well, when he was presiding over the two constructions. From 1975 to 1980 he spent an immeasurable amount of his own time, on behalf of the MPSA, facilitating meetings with various city officials and contractors to ensure the Association’s interests were protected. In a relatively short period of time since its formation, and with the assistance of the City of Mount Pearl and government funding, the Mount Pearl Soccer Association had developed and built a first class regulation soccer field accompanied by a its own clubhouse. Charlie’s professional input and extended volunteerism throughout the construction of these two major facilities is recognized as a large contributing factor in the growth and success of the Mount Pearl Soccer Association and its now admirable status.

As proof of their appreciation, Charlie has also been acknowledged for his dedication and commitment to the Mount Pearl Soccer Association when he was inducted into the MPSA Hall of Fame 2009.

Moreover, the Mount Pearl Sports Alliance recognizes Charlie Adams’ outstanding contributions with his induction to the Mount Pearl Sports Hall of Fame.
